ENGAGEMENT MADE

PUBLIC AT

A FESTIVE LUAU

An enjoyable and successful luau was given at the I. B. Peterson home on Peterson lane, Palama, in honor of Miss Hattie Jones and Miss Lani Wong Kong, two young ladies who have just graduated from the Kamehameha School for Girls. A large number of guests were present, graduates from the Kamehameha Schools being present in great number. The guests were received at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Duncan, who gave the luau. They were materially assisted by Miss Ace L. Wong Kong, who recently came from Maui on account of a throat trouble and took this opportunity to give her sister a "send-off" on the graduation.

The luau proper took place in the old Peterson house, one of the oldest houses in the city, where for the past thirty years many a luau has been spread. The luau lacked nothing in being a complete success and the climax was reached when at the end of the meal Mr. Peterson stood up and announced the engagement of his son David L. Peterson and Miss Hattie Jones.

After the spread the guests returned to the Duncan home, where excellent music was provided and dancing was indulged in until a late hour.

Among those present were Miss Hattie Jones, Miss Lani Wong Kong, Miss Ace Wong Kong, Miss Anna, Miss Elizabeth Kahanu, Miss Lydia Aho, Miss Mialo Kinney, Captain and Mrs. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Gregg, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Kinney, J. Aea, Mr. Almon and many others.

The Pastor—"Madam, you are setting a bad example for the children on this picnic." The Lady—"I fail to see the point." The Pastor—"You have put angel cake and deviled eggs side by side on the table."

anna hotel, and has not yet recovered from her sprained ankle. Her friends keep her company and do everything in their power to pass the weary hours away.

Miss Nannie Winston expects to sail in the Alameda next week for the Coast, providing she can get accommodations, after a visit of many months in Honolulu. She will be greatly missed for her delightful personality and brilliant mind have made her a great favorite. She is, without doubt, one of the most popular of the kamaunas and her friends are legion. She hopes to return next winter, for the wicker of the islands has laid hold of her, and she looks upon Honolulu as one of her homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Shields are making quite an extensive visit in Honolulu. They are stopping at the Hawaiian hotel and are charming additions to our little colony.

F. M. Hatch, Col. A. G. Hawes and Miss Harriet Hatch are expected on the next steamer from the Coast. Miss Harriet will not return to California, but will attend school here.

Mr. and Mrs. Dougherty chaperoned a gay party of young people from Saturday until Monday at Ahumama. The Macfarlane ranch. Among those invited were Miss Alice Campbell, Miss Ada Rhodes, Miss Genevieve Dowsett, Miss Violet Maceo, Mr. Waterman, Walter Macfarlane, Mr. Roth, Miss Junitta Beckley and many others.

Mr. and Mrs. Clive Davies entertained at dinner on Tuesday evening at Craigside in honor of Mr. Irvine, who has been the guest of the Davies for the past two weeks. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Marx, Miss Chase, Miss Giffard, Mr. Wright, and Mr. Derby.

The hop at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel was largely attended on Wednesday evening not only by the officers and ladies of the transport Sheridan, in whose honor it was given by Col. George Macfarlane, but by local society folk as well. It was indeed a gala occasion and one's freshest frocks were brought out for the delectation of the visitor. Miss Spivak looked very charming in a frock of delicate white material over white satin, the sash being of variegated green, and the tucking about the decollete was of the same striking color. The ladies and officers of the transport were most enthusiastic over the tropical setting of the hotel when the Solomon quiet days began their irresistible music they were completely captivated. Toward the end of the evening Col. Macfarlane was most cordially thanked for his courtesy.

Acting Governor Jack Atkinson entertained F. L. Martin of the transport Sheridan at luncheon on Wednesday. Mr. Martin and Mr. Atkinson were at school together in the East.

The Nature man poses for the sketch class of the Kiloheana Art League on Thursday. He is a striking subject, and unusually well built.

If hostesses would only send in a list of their guests, and descriptions of the various dinners, teas, dances and receptions how much easier the writing of the society column would be. You will say you do not like to see your names in the paper, but if one is omitted through lack of memory or carelessness how unkind you think we are. We are only too happy to write about your little affairs, and earnestly beg your cooperation. Times have changed and conservative people who looked with disgust upon society columns in the days gone by, recognize its existence, and acknowledge its necessity.

"Other times, other manners," and progression even in such a factor as the society columns is an established fact, and one is relegated to the backwoods who objects to a pleasant mentioning of the week's doings.

We hear with regret that British Consul Hoare and Miss Hoare expect to sail for England during the next few weeks. Mr. Hoare and his charming wife were extremely most delightful during their residence here and they will be a distinct loss to the community.

Mrs. C. S. Holloway was the hostess of a luncheon on Thursday. After lunch the guests amused themselves by playing pinochle. Among those present were Mrs. Raymond, Mrs. Noonan, Mrs. Tenney, Mrs. Harbert, Mrs. Bishop, Mrs. Freeth, Mrs. Parker.

There will be a large houseparty at Haleiwa from Saturday on Monday. The new golf links, tennis court, and large fresh water bathing pool, as well as salt water bathing, make Waialua a most attractive place. Manager Church makes his guests feel absolutely at home, and now that the "special" is running we can really spend a restful day in the country with up-to-date summer resort attractions.

Mrs. Byron Baird has returned from a week's visit at Mr. Church's popular hostelry. She reports a "perfectly lovely time."

The Kapiolani Maternity Home Committee have decided to give a grand luau before July Fourth in the grounds of the home. There will be a "foreign table", a flower table and a room under canvas for petro friends. The fair will open at noon and continue until evening. A dance will be given at night and the committee will do everything to make the day attractive. The Princess Kawanakoa is most enthusiastic and her help is invaluable.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Ballou are spending a few weeks on Tantalus.

Mrs. Henry Highton's picture, which is being exhibited in the Art League and called "A Chinese Madonna," is wonderfully strong and the coloring most brilliant. She paints with feeling.

Ex-Queen Liliuokalani received the members of the Democratic Convention on Tuesday, who came from the other islands for that purpose.

Mrs. Haskell, Worthy Vice Templar, Independent Order Good Templars, of Silver Lake, Mass., tells of her cure by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: Four years ago I was nearly dead with inflammation and ulceration. I endured daily untold agony, and life was a burden to me. I had used medicines and washes internally and externally until I made up my mind that there was no relief for me. Calling at the home of a friend, I noticed a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My friend endorsed it highly and I decided to give it a trial to see if it would help me. It took patience and perseverance for I was in bad condition, and I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for nearly five months before I was cured, but what a change, from despair to happiness, from misery to the delightful exhilarating feeling health always brings. I would not change back for a thousand dollars, and your Vegetable Compound is a grand medicine."

"I wish every sick woman would try it and be convinced."—Mrs. Ida Haskell, Silver Lake, Mass. Worthy Vice Templar, Independent Order of Good Templars.

When a medicine has been successful in more than a million cases, is it justice to yourself to say, without trying it, "I do not believe it would help me?"

Surely you cannot wish to remain weak, and sick and discouraged, exhausted with each day's work. You have some derangement of the feminine organism, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you just as surely as it has others.

Mrs. Tillie Hart, of Larimore, N. D., says:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: I might have been spared many months of suffering and pain if I had known of the efficacy of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a few months sooner, for I tried many remedies without finding anything which helped me before I tried the Vegetable Compound. I dreaded the approach of the menstrual period every month, as it meant much suffering and pain. Some months the flow was very scanty and others it was profuse, but after I had used the Compound for two months I became regular and natural, and so I continued until I felt perfectly well, and the parts were strengthened to perform the work without assistance and pain. I am like a different woman now, where before I did not care to live, and I am pleased to testify as to the good your Vegetable Compound has done for me. Sincerely yours, Mrs. Tillie Hart, Larimore, N. D."

Be it, therefore, believed by all women who are ill that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the medicine they should take. It has saved the test of time, and it has hundreds of thousands of cures to its credit. Women should consider it unwise to use any other medicine. Mrs. Pinkham, whose address is Lynn, Mass., will answer cheerfully and without cost all letters addressed to her by sick women. Perhaps she has just the knowledge that will help your case—try her to-day—it costs nothing.
